

Die like a dog? I wish!

Name of MP

Member for: 'electorate'

No dog would be forced to endure –

- uncontrollable vomiting of blood and faeces
- choking and drowning in own saliva
- ongoing “tapping” of abdominal cavity to remove litres of accumulating blood and pus
- skin swollen to bursting point, “rotting from the inside out”
- blindness, paralysis, incontinence due to inoperable brain tumour
- slow death from starvation
- ulcerating bedsores, down to the bone
- spinal cancer and excruciating, unremitting, untreatable pain
- faeces, pus and fluid from bowel cancer leaking through vagina

People in Australia are being forced to endure these symptoms.

All Australians should have the legal right to choose voluntary euthanasia.

MPs – we want the choice of a peaceful & dignified death NOW!
